McFarland's
BURGLAR and FIRE PROOF
SAFES!

THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of the public to a few above mentioned safes, all of which are possessed of the most qualified safeguards of property—proof against the all-devouring element of fire as well as the most dreadful burglar. To MERCHANTS, JEWELLERS, and BANK DIRECTORS, we would only say, examine them and the proofs, and you will be convinced of their superiority over all other manufactured.

Our business is done in a plain, straightforward way, without resorting to humbug or sarcasm. Send some of the many testimonials we are daily receiving from all parts of the country, and which speak for itself. Messrs. Read, & Hitchcock's 6th Safe was visited directly after the Pearl House and was totally consumed in that great fire of August 23d.

New York, July 23, 1853.

Messrs. Wm. McFarland & Co

Gents—It affords us pleasure to inform you that the Fire and Burglar Proof Safe we purchased of you preserved our books and papers, at the disastrous burning of the Pearl-st House, last evening, in the most perfect manner. Although it was exposed through that fire with burning Rosin, and other oils, and strength under a broken gas pipe, in the most intense heat, it remained true to its name and its contents when taken out were not even scorched, and hardly bore the smell of fire. To us one of the most important points is the perfect safeguard against fire, we do cheerfully recommend your manufactures, having had a personal experience of their excellence. Yours truly,

B. F. POND & HITCHCOCK.

Opinions of the Religious press.

HENRY WARD BEECHER, in the New York Independent, says—"Let it spread—May its numbers be as great as the flies in summer. May thousands sit down under its shadow with delight, and rise up refreshed and made kinder and better men." And may Solon Lair say live to write a hundred books more each one better than the other."

The N. Y. Evangelist, a leading Presbyterian paper, says of these stories—"They evince a dramatic skill worthy of Dickens, and powerfully appeal in behalf of the poor, virtuous and down trodden. The lessons which, round Christian morality and feeling cannot but approve of. Any thing more touching than 'The Little Hat-Cord Gift,' or indeed than most of these transcripts from the terrible realities of life, we have seldom encountered."

From the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, Md.—"No man can read it who has a spark of philanthropy in his bosom without feeling a strong desire to do something for the poor and wretched, to look with more compassionate glance upon the outcasts from our city, and especially to seek to remove from the atmosphere of vice those helpless and innocent children who are born in sin and nourished in iniquity."

From the Religious Recorder, Syracuse, N. Y.—"Let the volume be read."

From the Religious Herald, Hartford Conn.—"A great and good work will be a revelation of this book effect."

MEDICATED INHALATION.
A NEW METHOD.

AMIDST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY that have been made by CURTIS, of the use of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all Lung Complaints by Medicated Inhalation. Dr CURTIS'S HYGEANA, or BALSAMIC HYGEANA AIR and CHEMICAL SYRUPS, have become indeed the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption now in the city of New York, and recently have numbers passed over known to man. The producing of an impression of diseases of the lungs never before witnessed by the medical profession. [See cure in cases in hands of Agents.]

The cures are known on the street, under the lungs without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body, being sufficient to evaporate the fluid, supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and cure also vapor passing to all the air cells and passages of the lungs, that cannot possibly be reached by any other medicine. Here is a few of

ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 9 1853.

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I was confined to my house, but for a few days, and sleep at a time. I have had from 200 to 300 paroxysms in one night, and could attempt to lie down. My difficulty of breathing, and sometimes, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the last six years I have been under the care of some of the most celebrated physicians in the country, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to receive Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Apparatus, Vapor and Chemical Syrup. At the time I first obtained it I was not residing under one of the best patent physicians in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In the short ten minutes I was the use I applied the inhaler to my mouth and nostrils, in accordance with the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved from my distress, so that I could lie down, sleep, and had a comfortable night. I have now resided in this city for the last two years, and have had no return of my complaint, and I feel confident that the use of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, Vapor and Chemical Syrup, has entirely cured me of my complaint.

Yours truly,
MARGARET EASTON.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

NEW YORK, Dec 27th 1853

I came to New York on a visit from Georgia, with a severe cough, and pain in my breast, which I had had for many years, and frequently was much troubled with blood, had pain in my left side, and was very much emaciated. My friends and physicians pronounced my case consumption, and advised me to visit the city of New York, and recommended me to the use of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Vapor and Chemical Syrup, which I did, and obtained a package, which I used very freely. Before the use of Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Vapor and Chemical Syrup, I had a severe attack of bronchitis, which entirely left me, and I am now in the enjoyment of perfect health, and can recommend Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Vapor and Chemical Syrup, to all persons afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Pain in the Breast, Side or Back, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Difficulty of Breathing, Wasting away of the Flesh, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

I would call the attention of invalids to this, and would advise them to call at No. 5 Carroll Place, New York, and see Dr. Curtis, and obtain a pamphlet containing a history of cases, and the manner of using the Inhaler, Vapor and Chemical Syrup.

TUESDAY, FEB. 21, 1854.

Protest against the Nebraska Bill.

Many of our citizens have put their signatures to remonstrances against the passage of the Nebraska Territory Bill of Senator Douglas.—This is well, and those who have not sent forward their remonstrance or their influence by letter or in some such way, should speedily do so, that the focal point of public sentiment at Washington may be made sudden and warm.

Public opinion has also been expressed by our citizens in a large and highly respectable public meeting irrespective of political party. At that meeting the Mayor presided, and by his presence and his word gave his personal and official influence against the scheme to violate national faith and to extend the area of slavery and to blight the fair prospects of he rich and exceedingly beautiful domain pledged to freedom forever. We have published the official account of the proceedings of the meeting referred to, held at the City Hall on Saturday evening. It may be proper to remark further upon the matter, by stating that the meeting was not only called without distinction of party but that those who took an active part in the proceedings were members of the several political parties here. The principal speakers were, one from the Whig party, one from the Free Democracy, and one from the Old Line Democracy and who has been ignored by that party by being chosen President of the Senate of this State.

The subject was ably and fully discussed, and it was most clearly shown that the present plan of repealing the Missouri compromise is a violation of good faith. The territory north of 36 degrees and 30 minutes which in 1820 solemnly devoted to freedom, and for the dedication the South received what it deemed a boon to the admission of Missouri with a slave constitution, and the right of the admission of slave States south of this line. This was the compact to stand, not until a Congress could be scraped together that would repeal it, but forever, a compact, in the form of a resolution that really in the nature of a perpetual treaty involving the plighted and solemn pledge of the national faith. The South have all their part, all the benefits secured to them by this compromise, this perpetual treaty, and now it is proposed, when the country is quiet when the people have generally consented to settle down under the late compromise measures, to break down this compromise of thirty-four years standing and which has been relied upon as fixed, determined and settled beyond disturbance. The plan is one of the most iniquitous which has ever been attempted in American legislation.

Should the bill which Benton Douglas has introduced, and to carry which the Administration of Gen. Pierce has joined the knee in order to outrun the little Senator, become a law of the land, of which there is great danger, then slavery will become the inheritance of the Administration Democracy, the beautiful and fertile territory of Nebraska and so up to the base of the rocky mountains will be shunned by freemen and the free laboring emigrants from the Old World as polluted soil, and this rich inheritance be overrun with a sparse population to receive the over-growth of slaves and go exert a controlling political influence and to spread a chilling, freezing blight over the prosperity of the country. It will sweep with new and fiercer power the love of freedom in the country, and cause the sentiment of freedom to battle slavery at every point until all compromises are swept away, and the antagonism of freedom and slavery come hand to hand in the contest.

We mentioned, yesterday, that Rev. Mr. Allen of the Union-street Church, addressed the meeting on Saturday evening. He spoke about half an hour and the following is a abridged report of his remarks:

"I have been asked to speak a word of protest against this "Nebraska iniquity," or the name of the class which I represent, I do it readily and gladly as a citizen and a man. It is part of our republicanism to hold these primary meetings, and make our own minds and those of the people familiar with the principles and acts of state policy. As to the question, the story is short and simple. The policy of the framers of our government was to limit slavery by a cordon sanitaire, and make all territory beyond the original states, forever free. By thus putting a limit to slavery, they thought they were putting a short period to its life.—The ordinance of '87 consecrated forever to freedom all the territory then held by the United States. When the country west of the Mississippi was purchased of Napoleon, it was not organized at once as free (as it right have been in 1804,) but exposed to the invasion of slavery by the policy of delay. After sixteen years, Missouri claimed admission as a slave state. This was granted, on condition that no further territory north of its southern limit should ever be open to slavery. This was the compact which it is proposed now to overthrow. This we protest against, 1st, because it violates public faith; 2d, because it disturbs a settlement which has been acquiesced in now for more than a generation of men; 3d, because it throws down the boundary, and opens a vast region to the blight of slavery. The territory as the most magnificent heritage ever held in trust by any nation. It is equal in area to all the free states east of the rocky mountains with the addition of another as large as Maine; so vast that it would give a homestead of 160 acres each to two millions of men. We do not antagonize an honest repugnance at the wrong of slavery, which is at the bottom of our protest. It is not a sectional question. It is a high broad sun of national honor, whose beams should shine on North and South. If in this fight we lose, our Union becomes only one of convenience, policy or fear, instead of trust and respect. It is for the honor of all alike that these sentiments of this iniquity should not succeed. The Old World is engaged in a mighty struggle between the forces of liberty and civilization on the one side, despotism and barbarism on the other. Shall this nation, with its heroic memories, and its instincts of republican liberty thus unite the standing

A General War in Europe.

We received a telegraphic despatch yesterday in season for us to issue the same in our weekly paper, thus furnishing to our country friends the latest and most important news of a general war in Europe, in advance of all our contemporaries.

The perturbations of the last few months in the East and with the European cities of England and France have at last resulted in the termination of all negotiations and diplomatic intercourse between Turkey and her alliance with the Emperor of Russia. Now comes the cry of war between all the great powers of the Old World. It will be no boys play in fancy work, but the heaviest blows will be dealt with the highest military skill and the best strategy of war. It cannot, in the nature of things, be a prolonged war, but its effects and consequences cannot so easily be overthrown. That it will cause no little upturning of the present order of things, is most probable.

Turkey England, France, Prussia and Austria united against Russia in a war will produce effects of the most striking and terrible interest for some time to come, and the arrival of every breath of news from the seat of war will be sought with the deepest interest.

The steamship Pacific arrived at New York yesterday, bringing the intelligence expected, that the last proposals between the parties have been rejected. The Russian Ministers have left London and Paris and the Ministers of England and France have been recalled from the Russian Court. The Cunard steamships have been ordered into the public service, and the most active measures for commencing the war with vigor have been put in operation in France and in England.

We have been somewhat interested within a few weeks past at the announcement for papers containing our telegraphic news from Europe by a new set of customers, from the neighboring towns and in various parts of the interior. In conversation with some of these men we have found them full of anxiety on the subject and watching every movement with as much care and minuteness as though they had a personal interest in the matter. Upon further inquiry, we learn that these new customers are Adventists, and who believe that this war between Turkey and Russia is the fulfillment of the prophecies of the Scriptures and so establishes the winding up of the affairs of this wicked world by a destruction of the sinners and the uniting up of the saints. These persons are very positive that the Emperor of Russia is the "King of the North," and that although he may meet with many reverses he will at length triumph. The news we publish today will affect them additional interest, as it confirms their convictions, all along expressed, that a general war was speedily to come!

Each of us has a work to do in this world. Surely not one is willing to die without being able to answer himself that the world is better for his having lived in it. But time flies constantly, and seemingly from the cradle to the grave with ever accumulating rapidity. Then be not idle.—Time never flies backward. A moment lost is lost forever, irretrievably lost.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Express mentions as an evidence of the progress of the woman's rights cause, that Mrs. Pauline W. Davis, of the Providence Una (a woman's rights paper) has been assigned a seat in the reporters' gallery of U. S. Senate. The husband of Mrs. Davis is a member of the House.

Advices from Texas are to the 8th inst. Heavy falls of rain have occurred, causing an overflow of Trinity river. Gen. Henderson has subscribed four million dollars to the stock of the Texas railroad, and the Legislature has passed a bill setting apart two millions for the school fund.

We ask—we have public interest—if less than one dollar for each a month mother, wages she thinks must be their only number in that early period, when lessons are best acquired through the sympathies, and when the heart seems ripe to receive instruction, than to obey the understanding

Mr. Knowlton of Liberty moved to amend by striking out Kennebec Journal and inserting Oxford Democrat.

Mr Cushing moved to substitute Maine Farmer.

Mr. Knowlton opposed the motion, and complimented the Democrat as the most purely democratic paper in the State.

Mr Cushing at Mr Knowlton's request withdrew his motion.

The question was then taken, and the motion to substitute the Oxford Democrat prevailed; yeas 86, nays 58.

Mr. Abbott then moved to postpone the subject till Wednesday next. The motion prevailed; 56 to 54. Adjourned.

Bangor Post-office avenue again.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

I was pleased to see your paragraph in regard to the abominable nuisance found in the avenue of the Post office for the last several days, as the communication of your correspondent "good order," on yesterday's whig, and the tenor of the note is merely to suggest an amendment to your correspondents suggestions as to the remedy.—And that is to the police. We have law enough and ordinances enough. But no efficiency in our city police. Let the police disperse the rowdy boys and gin's who congregate in the post-office avenue and other places in the City, both in the day time and evenings too, and if necessary, carry them home to their parents, and if that will not stop it, put them into the watch house once or twice. See this be tried and see if that nuisance is not at once abated. I have thought many a time that the boys the city can do it to abolish all her ordinances and police, and save as worse than wasted, the large expenditures now incurred for these purposes. GOOD ORDER Jr.

"Three silver Spanish dollars were in a piece of paper by themselves, and on the outside of the paper was the word 'death,' in large letters. The silver was considerably corroded, but the gold was bright. The dates on the gold pieces were from 1673 to 1781, and appeared to be a collection of old coins, as no two were alike. The vessel contained 65 pieces of silver, the value of which varied from 6 cts to $1.25, and 24 pieces of gold, the value of which was from $2,00 to $18,50. The building where the money was found is about 100 years old, and was known as the Stiles Mansion. Many queer stories have been told in relation to this building as being the headquarters of ghosts and fairies; and where are at present plenty of persons living here who believe they have mentally seen them."

We refer to Dr. Curtis's Hygeian or Inhaling Hygeian Vapor and Cherry Syrup.—With the vapor, as inhaled by Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health, as an evidence of which he has numerous certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks:—It is evident the inhaling, constantly breathing an agreeable vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the mucous cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach and subjected to the process of digestion. Old City Market.

HAVING been engaged the past nine years on the Kenduskeag Bridge, in the Provision Business, and having come to the conclusion to remain there, I return my sincere thanks to my friends and the public for their liberal patronage. Having passed a number of my prejudiced friends since recently in regard to me and my business the past nine or ten years I would say to them, especially the latter, who labored so hard in effort to fix that indictment against the Old City Market that the only consolation I can give them is, if I have done wrong I am entirely willing to be forgiven.

This Cement, which has been proved to be of great strength, will be found particularly useful in every family; the simple manner of its application is upon a recommendation. The adhesive property which it contains is so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it. The various purposes for which it may be used are so numerous that it would be difficult to recite them. Its success in mending Glass, China, &c., is extraordinary, no ordinary degree of heat affecting it, and as the joints are scarcely perceptible, articles of this kind may be made useful for years, which otherwise would have been cast away.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE!

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst scrofula down to a common Pimple — He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humors) — he has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of perfect cures, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two or three bottles will clear the worst form of blotches

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of scrofula

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure ringworm of the nose and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two or three bottles are sufficient to cure the worst case of ringworm

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of tetter salt rheum

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the itch

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above directions are taken

Nothing in this or any other pill to those who have imagined all the wonderful meetings of the day so that a common weed growing in the pastures and along roadsides would cure every humor in the system, let it come how it may. If you have a humor it has to go — For a complete humor, human or inhuman, name, cause or fee, in the most severe, I positively order and warrant but a trial of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of the remedy, and I challenge the whole of the faculty to produce a case of humor in all people I will make them a present gift on my book and children where the blood was not entirely restored to a perfect state of health in one month.

To those who are troubled with sick headache one bottle will cure the worst case. It never fails — Scald head and old sores. Some cases have been of many years standing, and have been cured in a few days, but where the body is much broken down and humor deep seated, the cure is augmented the longer, and sometimes requires over six bottles, but you must not be discouraged — that always appears from long experience to be the worst case. I have never had a failure — not the contrary who had feeling gone on a pill or sarsaparilla since I began. I shall call the most extraordinary cases of humor ever listened to.

TERMS.

Daily by subscription ..... Six Dollars per year

Semi-Weekly ..... Four Dollars per year

Weekly ..... Two Dollars per year

JOURNAL ADVERTISEMENTS ..... 25 cents per square

The people of the BOSTON JOURNAL, seeing the extraordinary and rapid growth of the circulation of this paper, and the low price, call upon the friends of the paper, and those who wish to become subscribers to the Journal, to make a united effort to increase the circulation to 50,000 copies. By this means they will be enabled to reduce the price to two cents, and thus accommodate the people of this city, and the country generally, with a first class newspaper at a very small price. Before the end of two years, at the present rate of increase, the circulation of the Journal will be over 50,000 copies, and the publishers will be enabled to reduce the price to two cents. This will be a great saving to the people, and will be the means of placing the Journal in the hands of every family in the city and country. The publishers are willing to make any reasonable sacrifice to accomplish this object, and they feel confident that the friends of the Journal will do all in their power to aid them in the enterprise.

THE DAILY JOURNAL,

Although forms not at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy, contains MORE READING MATTER than any other daily paper in Boston. It contains the

Correspondents in all parts of the country will be supplied with the Journal, and orders may be left at the office, or addressed. Arrangements are made to publish LETTERS FROM CORRESPONDENCE, and by a liberal use of the

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL

is made up expressly for mail circulation, and contains a vast amount of interesting and useful matter, especially to Mechanics, Farmers, &c. It is published every Thursday morning, at Two Dollars a year in advance, and is usually printed on good paper, with fair type. As a FAMILY NEWSPAPER
